

"WHITE PLAGUE": FANTASTIC REALISM OF THE TIMES OF ONE WAR

The aim of the project is to create an open cultural dialogue in Ukrainian society about the war and post-war meanings and values relevant to Ukraine by creating a new cultural narrative. By such a cultural narrative, the project team means the experience of staging the fantastic play "The White Pestilence" based on the play by K. Chapek by the Dnipro Drama Youth Theater "We Believe!" in the Ukrainian reality. The project envisages a wide regional coverage (performances in three regions of Ukraine - Dnipro, Chernivtsi, and Kyiv) and discussion forums to engage the general public in interpreting the theme of "restoration" in the artistic context of the play.
