YSOU CHAMBER MUSIC LAB: REBUILDING SELF-STRENGTH OF UKRAINIAN YOUTH

VISION OF THE PROJECT

The YsOU Chamber Music Lab: Rebuilding Self-Strength of Ukrainian Youth was created for the musicians of the Youth Symphony Orchestra of Ukraine (YsOU). Its purpose was to educate young Ukrainian musicians and encourage cross-cultural cooperation between Ukraine, Spain, and Germany through music, while also fostering Ukrainian culture internationally. The project aimed to raise awareness about the ongoing conflict in Ukraine and promote peace through the transformative and communicative power of music, as well as to ease the emotional and cultural rebuilding process for those affected by the war.

Key results included fostering international reflection on Ukraine's situation and integrating Ukrainian culture into the European creative sector. The project empowered young Ukrainians for recovery and ultimately for the rebuilding of Ukraine. It enhanced the professional skills and cultural diversity awareness of YsOU musicians, increased the visibility of Ukrainian culture abroad, and highlighted the contributions of Ukrainian music and composers.

The initiative raised awareness about the Russian war in Ukraine and strengthened cultural ties between the participating countries. It featured the premiere of two significant chamber music pieces by Ukrainian composers reflecting on the war, involving young Ukrainian artists and professional musicians in Spain and Germany. Additionally, it promoted and utilised the positive effects of music to rebuild and create
